DEDICATION

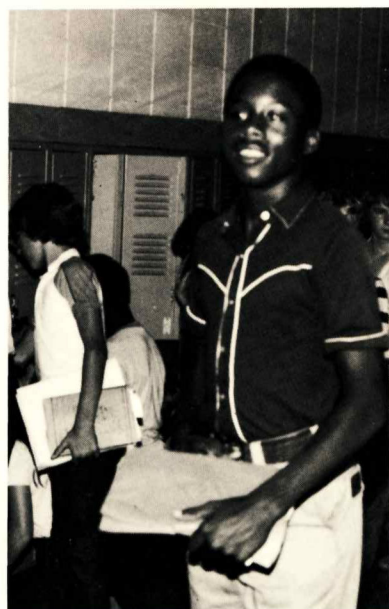

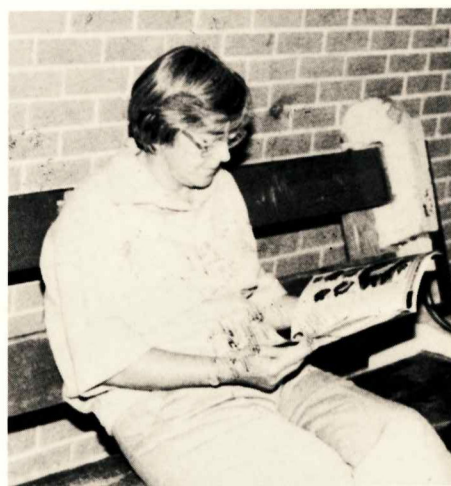

SUE GIBSON

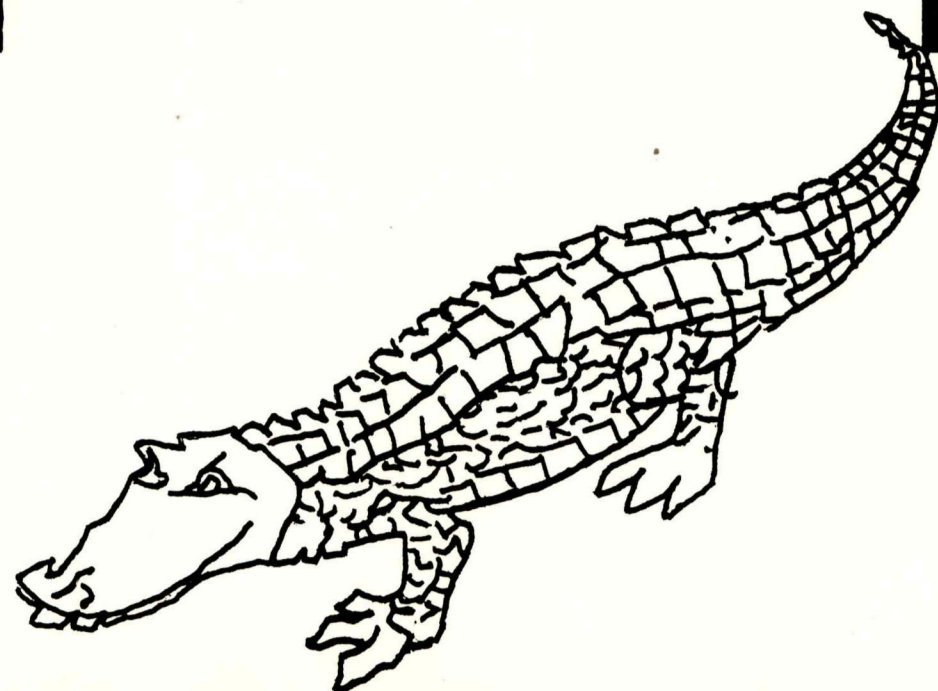

The teacher to whom we dedicate this yearbook is outstanding in many ways. She has taught school for sixteen years, eight of those here at GJHS. She attends school functions to show her support of the students and show her school spirit. She is well liked by her students and considered by many as their favorite teacher, mainly because the students and their welfare come first with her. For your kindness, your help and support, and outstanding qualities, we the '82 Gator's Prints staff dedicate this yearbook to you, Ms. Carolyn Sue Gibson.

Organizations

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

To become a NJHS member one has to maintain an A or B average, an S in citizenship, and be recommended by his teachers.

The goals of the NJHS are to create enthusiasm for superior scholarship, develop citizenship, stimulate a desire to serve, promote leadership, and instill exemplary qualities of character.

Projects for the year included "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF, Christmas gifts for children at the Haven, Student Teacher Day, and Teacher Appreciation Day.

Left to right: Mrs. K. Geenen, Sponsor; Mandy Dalton, Reporter; Penny Wise, Secretary; Lindy Madson, V. Pres.; Angelia Peterson, President; Mrs. S. Smith, Sponsor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student-body elected officers and homeroom-elected representatives and alternatives comprised this eighty member group.

The Student Council was ever busy in student affairs. The proceeds from their annual candy sale were used to improve the school and student life at GJHS. Their other projects included the Homecoming Halftime program and dance, the Spring Dance, and food baskets for the needy at Christmas and Thanksgiving.

GATORS FEET

To Qualify, the 72 members had to run a ten minute mile. Some of the runs they participated in were the school-sponsored Turkey Trot and the Raindeer Prance, the Mississippi Marathon, the Church of the Redeemer Race, The Governor's Cup, and the Azalea Trail Run in Mobile, Alabama. Mrs. Goff and Ms. Nash also ran in some of these races. SPONSORS: Mrs. Goff, Ms. Nash, Ms. Taylor.

The fifty-five members had to have a B average in History and satisfactory in citizenship to qualify for membership. One of their field trips was to Beauvoir, Jeff Davis' home in Biloxi. SPONSORS: Mrs. A. Baylis, Mr. E. Jones

HISTORY
CLUB

Students who major interest is Science made up this Club. They sponsored the school Science Fair, the City Science Fair, and a talent show.

On field trips they visited the Planetarium, Mississippi Chemical Corp., and they attended the Nuclear Waste Disposal Seminar, and the Marine Biology Seminar.

SCIENCE

LIBRARY WORKERS

These students helped other students get to know and understand the library. They helped students check out books and use the card catalog.

To be selected to work in the library, one had to have an interest in learning library procedures and be respectful to teachers and fellow students. SPONSOR: Mrs. Dana Moore

The FHA was composed of a group of ninth graders who were enrolled in Home Economics.

Throughout the year they sponsored many activities such as: parties at the nursing home, giving a Mother-Daughter Supper, and Trick or Treat at Singing River Hospital. They also visited the Haven in Vancleave. SPONSOR: Mrs. J. Deaton

AMERICA

The Members of this band were mostly seventh graders, although it was open to any student wishing to learn how to play a band instrument. Ms. Davidson was assisted with this group by two Varsity band students.

BEGINNER BAND

The members of this band are very busy through the year. They performed at all home football games, at the Christmas and Spring Concerts, at the Jackson County Fair, for PTA and for the elementary schools in Gautier. They attended band clinics and contests all along the Gulf Coast. Many of the students in this band brought back Superior ratings from the band contests in which they performed. We at GJHS are proud of our outstanding band.

OFFICE MONITORS

The Office Monitors are composed of eighth and ninth grade students who must maintain above a C average in all subjects. They must carry out assignments, conduct themselves in a business-like manner, be diplomatic and courteous to everyone, and refrain from misconduct. They learn all the tasks of office work. Ninth graders received ½ credit for this.

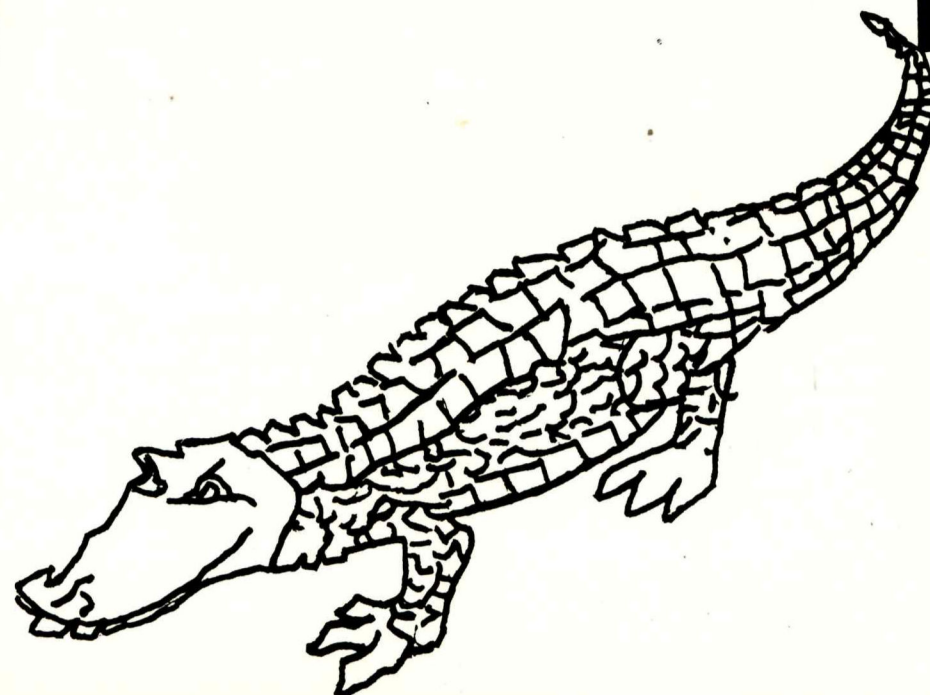

This group is made up of ninth graders who helped the Guidance Counselors. Some of their duties were running errands, completing student withdrawal forms, helping new students become adjusted to GJHS, and getting assignments for absent students.

Run faster.

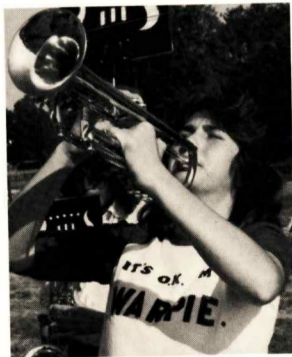

Study hard?

Make a cake.

Blow and March at the same time?

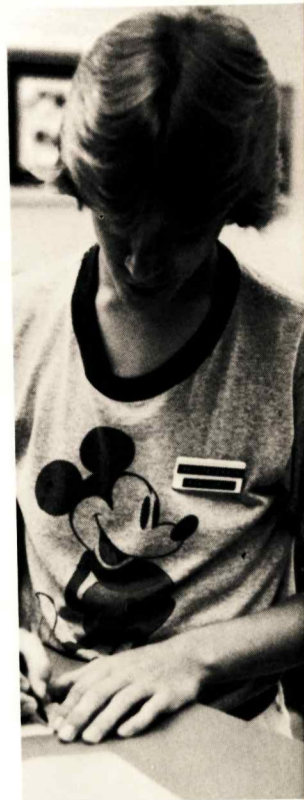

Play music.

Dress in the latest style?

Make popcorn and cakes.

Write passes.

To a friend I'll never forget. Keep up the good work and basketball and softball.
 Don't ever let anybody tell you are. You're not good in sports because you are. You're good in 9th grade
 and be careful this summer.
 Love,
 Mike

To a girl I meet at the bowling alley and have known ever since
Don't beat up any boys

To a girl I know
a long time
good luck in the future
Greg Baker

I have enjoyed getting to know you. You're a very nice young lady! (A teacher isn't a teacher without a bottle of liquid paper!)
Love, Corey
Mr. Corey

Be glad I'm in a happy mood and I might have said a lot of things.
Remember the fun and larger the fights but remember me too. The fights but remember me too.

To a great friend who'll I always remember. Good luck in the future
your friend
Jamie

To Sonya,
I sweet and nice basketball player.
I hope you break scoring records.

Love &
Amber

To a very dear friend
that I hope to know longer.
Good luck in the future. I know you'll go a long way.

To a very nice & dear friend, & a great softball player. Good luck in the future.
